QUARTERLY ISSUES & PROGRAMS LIST FOR KTVL-TV MEDFORD

Quarter: July-August-September 2010

MAIN / SECONDARY ISSUE DESCRIPTION	TITLE	PROGRAM	START DATE	AIR TIME	RUNS
Young People / Social Issues Homophobic remarks such as "that's so gay" are the most commonly heard thype of biased remarks at school. Research shows that these slurs are often unintentional and are part of teens' vernacular. Most do not recognize the consequences, but the casual use of this language often carries over into more overt harassment.	Think Before You Speak	PSA	7/1/2010		150
Law Enforcement / Copyright Another new law starting July 1st will make it harder for college students to illegally swap the latest chart-toppers and blockbusters. Southern Oregon University, along with other colleges and universities across the country, had to prove to the governmnet they're joining the music industry's online piracy fight. It will be harder to access the necessary internet connection, popular sites will be monitored and offenders will be disciplined.	Anti-Piracy	News	7/1/2010	5p, 11p, 6a, 12p	4
Consumer Affairs / Prices Effective July 1st, tanners will pay a new 10% tax to use indoor tanning beds. Some business owners are feeling burned and left in the dark by lawmakers when they passed the new tax in the healthcare reform bill earlier this year.	Tan Tax	News	7/1/2010	5p, 6p, 11p, 6a, 12p	5
Community Services / Donations It's time for the Salvation Army's annual Fan Drive. The group collects fans every summer to help keep people cool in the hot weather. The fans go to older and disabled people and families with babies. You can drop off a fan or cash to be used to buy fans at the Salvation Army Thrift Store on Central in Medford. 7/9/10: The Salvation Army says they have blown through 48 fans, giving them out to low income families. With more triple digit days ahead and even more people in need, they're asking for more donations.	Fan Drive	News	7/1/2010	6a, 12p, 5p, 6p	5
Environment / Air Quality New rules on carbon monoxide alarms for some households starting July 1st. When a landlord enters a new rental agreement, if the home or apartment has a carbon monoxide source, the residence needs an alarm by the time the renter moves in. Right now this new rule applies only to new rentals, but by April 2011 all rentals, new sales or remodels need to have the alarms.	Carbon Monoxide	News	7/1/2010	6a, 12p	2
Fires / Fire Season Fire season is matching the record for the latest start ever. Crews say the July 1st start is because of the wet month of May. They hope this late start gave residents enough time to get ready. Property owners should clear their property of tall, dry grass and dead trees, mow lawns, and make sure crews can clearly spot the address in case a fire breaks out near your home. 7/1/10: Fire Season kicks off today and that means more jobs for firefighters. With more calls and more danger during fire season, Fire District Number 5 is beefing up their staff. 8/10/10: Wacky weather is to blame for a slow fire season. Although fire fighters aren't complaining about the lack of flames, they don't want the slow season to catch people off guard. Even with the slow season, all fire restrictions are still in effect.	Fire Season	News	7/1/2010	6a, 12p, 5p, 6p, 11p	12
Environment / Water Supply Water stopped flowing for 1,000 people in the town of Merrill. Crews are working on the water tower and well trying to figure out what caused it to stop flowing water to residents there. City officials say the water level of the main and back-up well lowered below the pumps, causing the water to stop flowing. They are hoping to fix the problem by Saturday. Crews are working to lower the pumps so they can reach the water. The City is offering porta potties and trucks are supplying drinking water. The local pool has also opened its facilities and is letting residents use the showers.	Merrill Water	News	7/1/2010	6a, 12p, 5p, 6p, 11p	7
Economy / State Budget Governor Schwarzenegger has ordered more than 200,000 state workers be paid minimum wage this month because the Legislature failed to pass a budget on time. 7/2/10: State workers are one step closer to getting their pay slashed to minimum wage. A state appellate court sided with the Schwarzenegger administration.	CA Cash Crisis	News	7/1/2010	11p, 6a, 6p, 11p, 5p	6

QUARTERLY ISSUES & PROGRAMS LIST FOR KTVL-TV MEDFORD

MAIN / SECONDARY ISSUE DESCRIPTION	TITLE	PROGRAM	START DATE	AIR TIME	RUNS
Two days into the new fiscal year and California still doesn't have a budget, you'd think the Capital Building would be buzzing with lawmakers. But it's all quiet in Sacramento. The state faces a $19 billion deficit. Some senators say they can understand Californians are upset with late budgets, but they say it's more important to get it right. They insist lawmakers are not on vacation. 7/16/10: California State workers can breathe easy for now. A judge has refused to force the State Controller to pay state workers minimum wage. The judge ruled it would cause too much harm to employees. 8/20/10: California's budget crisis drags on with no end in sight. It's been 6 weeks since the Governor met with Republican and Democrat leaders in one room, and no meetings are on the calendar.
Law Enforcement / Laws	Panhandling	News	7/2/2010	5p, 6p, 11p	3
People handing money to panhandlers in Medford better prepare to fork over nearly $75 to police as well. A new Medford law effective immediately blocks drivers and passengers from giving money to solicitors on Medford streets. Sidewalks and parking lots are still okay.
Business / Development	Invest	News	7/2/2010	5p, 6p, 11p	3
Angel Investment Network pairs entrepreneurs with investors to give companies the money they need to move to the region and start their business. SOREDI is also involved in the project. Leaders are hoping start up companies won't keep moving out of this region to find the investors they need to open up shop. This network is gaining ground across the region, not just in Medford.
Political Process / Initiatives	Med Marijuana	News	7/2/2010	5p, 6p	2
Backers of a marijuana measure are confident it will make the November ballot. The measure would make it legal for medical marijuana users to buy the drug from State regulated dispensaries.
Transportation / Driving	Driver Ed	PSA	7/2/2010		135
Kids who complete a driver education course have fewer crashes, get fewer tickets and may pay less in insurance. Find an ODOT approved driver education course online and help your kids drive safely.
Armed Forces / Veterans	Veteran E-Cards	PSA	7/2/2010		117
Show your thanks and support for a veteran or active duty service member by sending an e-card. Visit www.pva.org.
Recreation / Outdoor	4th of July	News	7/3/2010	6p, 11p, 6a, 12p	6
Expect fewer booms this holiday weekend as city budgets bust. The crackle of color and boom of a fireworks show is a little dimmer this year as cities across the region struggle to pay for the Nation's birthday party. 7/4/10: People lined the streets for the City of Ashland's 4th of July parade. You can catch a fireworks show in Medford. The city's Red, White, and Boom event will take place at Harry & David field beginning around 9:45pm.
Economy / Employment	Jobless	News	7/5/2010	12p, 5p, 6p, 11p, 6a	6
Time is running out for Oregonians receiving unemployment benefits after a bill to extend benefits is being held up in the Senate. While Congress continues to debate, those without a job are running out of options to stay afloat.
Economy / Recession	Foreclosures	News	7/5/2010	12p, 5p, 6p, 11p, 6a	6
An unexpected spike in foreclosures in Oregon, skyrocketing 20% in the first quarter. State-wide hot spots include Josephine, Jackson, Klamath and Curry Counties. The State's senior economist says it's a matter of timing: Oregon was late to enter the recession, so it's foreclosure rate will likely stay higher longer.
Recreation / Pets	Spooked Dogs	News	7/6/2010	5p, 6p, 6a, 12p	4
Spooked by the bang and boom of fireworks, dozens of dogs ran away on the 4th of July weekend. The Jackson County Animal Control is swamped with lost dogs, found dogs, and owners desperate to find their family pets. Families are urged to check newspaper ads, call and stop by the different animal shelters.

MAIN / SECONDARY ISSUE DESCRIPTION	TITLE	PROGRAM	START DATE	AIR TIME	RUNS
Recreation / Music Love going to the Britt Festival, but hate waiting in long lines? Thanks to an annual tradition, local kids are saving your spot and collecting cash at the same time. You can go online to britt-sitter.com to find some kids who will help you skip the wait for anywhere between $4 and $8 an hour. A spot can be held for one person with a ticket and a permit is required for overnight line sitting.	Line Sitter	News	7/6/2010	6p, 11p, 6a	3
Health / Heat-Related Potential record-breaking heat will affect the region this week. People working outside are taking safety seriously--drinking plenty of water and reapplying sunscreen. The public is advised to be aware of heat-related illnesses and take precautions. Forecasters also warn people not to leave children and pets in cars.	Heat	News	7/7/2010	12p, 5p, 6p, 11p, 6a	8
Health / Smoking Smoking in your home may soon be banned. The Jackson County Housing Authority is now banning low income renters from smoking inside their units. The ban starts September 1st after officials say more renters are complaining the smoke is affecting the children in nearby homes.	Smoking Ban	News	7/7/2010	12p	1
Law Enforcement / Prostitution A Craigslist prostitution ring has been busted in Ashland. One woman is behind bars, accused of setting up several women around town with at least 12 "johns" in local motels, private homes, and even her own house. Police say the month-long investigation also revealed the woman may have set up a fake charity, The Haley Foundation, committed theft and identity theft.	Prostitution Ring	News	7/7/2010	12p, 5p, 6p, 11p, 6a	5
Law Enforcement / Gangs A spike in gang violence behind bars has forced juvenile corrections facilities to change their ways. Young people are attacking each other and their supervisors. A new program will identify the gang member, keep them away from rivals and teach gang outreach classes in hopes of keeping these young offenders away from a life of crime.	Gang Violence	News	7/8/2010	5p, 6p, 11p, 6a, 12p	5

MAIN / SECONDARY ISSUE DESCRIPTION	TITLE	PROGRAM	START DATE	AIR TIME	RUNS
7/10/10: Crews begin clean-up efforts after the massive fire at a White City Mill. Fire crews spent the day dousing the area to prevent any flare-ups, a process that could continue for days. Officials say it is still too hot to let investigators in and it may be a up to a week before they can begin the investigation. 7/12/10: Fire crews are trying to figure out what caused Friday's massive fire in White City. Investigators say it took them longer than usual to get into the debris because the fire was still very hot several days after flames were gone. 7/20/10: Fire officials have completed their investigation into what started the fire that destroyed Davis Finished Products and they can't determine a cause. Fire District 3 was out mopping up the area for about 5 days, now a private contractor is working to put out small fires burning in debris piles on the property.
Business / Employment	Vet Job Fair	News	7/11/2010	6p, 11p, 6a, 12p	4
A job fair at Crater High School in Central Point brought job opportunities for veterans hunting for work since their return home to Southern Oregon. Organizers say it was an effort to match soldiers who need work with employers who have work. They said it was a huge success.
Community Services / Donations	House	News	7/12/2010	6p, 11p, 6a	3
Chase Bank has donated a house to the local Habitat for Humanity. The bank was unable to find a buyer for the 3-unit home located on 4th Street. Habitat's plan is to tear it down because two of the units are in bad shape. Recently, other banks have offered discounts to the organization, but not donations.
Economy / Employment	Unemployment	News	7/13/2010	5p, 6p, 11p, 6a, 12p	24
Oregon's latest unemployment rate is out and the numbers have not changed. The rate peaked last spring at more than 11.5%. It dropped over the rest of 2009, but most of this year it has hovered around 10.5%. 7/19/10: New unemployment numbers are out for Southern Oregon. Jackson County stayed about the same in June at 12.1%. Josephine County saw a bit of a drop to 13.9%. The weeks-long stalemate over a bill to extend unemployment benefits could end tomorrow. 8/17/10: There was no improvement last month in Oregon's jobless rate; it's been stuck in the same place for the last 9 months--10.6%. Oregon posted job gains in construction and manufacturing, but those increases were offset by seasonally adjusted job declines in government and health services. The national unemployment rate for July was 9.5%. 8/24/10: Unemployment is up again in Southern Oregon. Numbers show about a half percentage point increase for both Jackson and Josephine Counties. They're about the same as they were a year ago, Jackson County is 12.8% and Josephine County is 14.3%. Statewide numbers are looking better, steady from June to July at 10.6% and down almost a percentage point from this time last year. 9/3/10: New numbers from the government show the number of unemployed people in the U.S. went up last month. The White House says there's reason to be optimistic; the President is calling on Congress to pass a new bill to help lower unemployment. 9/14/10: New unemployment numbers are out for the month of August, unchanged from July at 10.6%. 9/21/10: Unemployment numbers are out for Jackson and Josephine Counties, with both regions showing slight increases from last month. Unemployment rates for Jackson County shifted a tenth of a point from July to 12.8%. Josephine County is also up 1.1% from July to 14.3%.
Political Process / Debates	Gov Debate	News	7/13/2010	5p, 6p, 11p, 6a, 12p	5
The Republican candidate for Oregon Governor will not take part in the Oregon Newspaper Publishers Association's Summer Convention debate this week in Salem. He says he'll be on vacation. The debate is a decades old tradition in Oregon politics.
Transportation / Busses	Bus Passes	News	7/13/2010	12p, 6p, 11p, 6a	4
People working in downtown Medford can get free passes to ride the bus to work. The Heart of Medford Association and Rogue Valley Transportation District are offering the 20-ride passes worth $40 through the end of the year. The idea is to reduce downtown traffic, save people money, and leave more parking spaces for downtown visitors.

Economy / Marriage	Divorce	News	7/16/2010	5p, 6p, 11p	3
A Medford attorney says her firm is handling more divorce cases than ever before, this year working 43 cases--nearly quadrupling last year's dozen. More couples are splitting up and blaming the economy. In addition to divorce, the attorney says she's seeing more child custody cases that involve partners who split up but were never married.
Enviroment / Pollution	Plastic Bags	News	7/17/2010	6p, 11p, 6a, 12p	4
A local lawmaker wants to bag plastic bags. For environmental reasons, Republican State Sentator Jason Atkinson of Central Point is proposing a bill that would ban plastic bags from Oregon stores. News10 spoke to people arround the Rogue Valley and asked what they thought of the plan; most agreed with the green idea. Atkinson hopes to get the bag bill passed during the 2011 legislative session.
Recreation / Fairs	JaCo Fair	News	7/17/2010	6p, 11p, 6a, 12p, 5p	38
People were filling the Jackson County Fairgrounds this weekend. The fair isn't opened yet, but people were out setting up. The Jackson County Fair kicks off Tuesday and last through next Sunday. 7/19/10: The Fair opens tomorrow and final touches are being added to vendors and attractions. Ticket prices are $9 for adults, free for Seniors on opening day before 2pm, $4 for children ages 7 and older. 7/20/10: News10 shows you how to have fun at the Fair on a tight budget. 7/21/10: Some of the biggest attractions at the Fair are the rides. A lot goes into make sure the good time is a safe one. Rides are checked during set-up and daily before opening to make sure everything is working properly. Safety inspections with the State of Oregon and seminars for employees make sure that nobody gets hurt. 7/23/10: It's prime time for the heat. News10 shows you how to stay safe and cool at the Fair. News10 also looks at how the Fair is benefitling from people opting out of a vacation and saving money with stay-cations. 7/24/10: The high attendance at the Fair is benefitling many non-profits. For 17 years, the Crater Foundation has been raising money through the Fair to by selling soda and water. Their sales are up about 35% compared to last year. Organizers say they are surprised by how well they are doing this year and accredit this to the high attendance numbers and hot weather. 7/24/10: In spite of record attendance, many vendors say it has been an average or below average year for sales. The Fair Grounds Director says there was a 10% rise in attendance until Saturday and expects high temperatures hurt attendance overall.

Environment / Management A Federal judge in Medford will consider whether to stop the removal of the old Gold Ray Dam. The judge listened to arguments on a motion brought by a group trying to stop Jackson County from removing the century old dam. The lawsuit claims the civil rights of dam opponents were violated because the county paid the hearings officer who granted the permit allowing the dam removal. 7/28/10: Work to remove Gold Ray Dam on the Rogue River will continue. A Federal judge refused to extend a temporary stop-work order sought by four local people trying to prevent removal of the century-old dam. Jackson County decided to remove it as a long-term financial liability after receiving a $5 million Federal stimulus grant.	Gold Ray Dam	News	7/26/2010	11p, 6a, 12p, 5p, 6p	18

8/11/10: They're not calling it a mistake, but crews working to remove the Gold Ray Dam had water flowing a lot sooner than anticipated. Crews had to temporarily stop working while the water flowed. The breach was anticipated later this month. 8/11/10: Water is flowing over the Gold Ray Dam and it's causing a problem for some local businesses. A few businesses in Gold Hill use the river for their day-to-day operations, but now the dam is keeping some of them out of the water. When the dam gave way, it sent debris downstream that can be very dangerous for rafters and kayakers. Additionally, the rise in water level is making the river run faster than normal.

Fires / Wildfire 47 The Oak Flat Fire started at just 30 acres Saturday and has grown to over 500 acres and no where near containment. The fire is burning outside of Grants Pass near Briggs Creek and the Illinois River. 8/16/10: A weekend fire outside Grants Pass grew overnight to nearly 650 acres. It's in a very remote section of the Rogue River-Siskiyou National Forest. Firefighters say they are having a hard time getting to the fire, between thick smoke and the rough terrain. Crews say it's no where near containment. 8/18/10: The Oak Flat fire has burned 925 acres so far and is only 10% contained. Yesterday's thunderstorm passed right by the fire and officials say it did not impact or benefit the fire. Right now there are 27 twenty-person hand crews and 9 engines working the fire in two shifts, trying to build containment lines around the fire. 8/19/10: The Oak Flat fire is growing. It's been mapped at more than 1200 acres and is 15% contained. Fire crews say the fire became more active yesterday. Although smokey, the Illinois River corridor remains open. 8/20/10: Some progress on the Oak Flat fire. It's up to more than 1700 acres and is 18% contained. Firefighters were able to create more containment lines and say with the cooler weather this weekend they are hoping for more progress. 8/21/10: The smell of smoke in air is filling the Valley this afternoon, all from the Oak Flat fire. It's up to more than 2100 acres and is about 30% contained. Because of firefighter's efforts to put out the blaze, more smoke can be expected in Grants Pass and the Rogue Valley in the next few days. 8/23/10: The cooler weekend weather helped firefighters as they continue to battle the Oak Flat fire. The fire is up to nearly 3500 acres and is about 55% contained. More than 1,000 firefighters are making progress on the fire. 8/24/10: Heat and high winds re testing fire lines completed around the Oak Flat fire near Selma. The fire has burned more than 4300 acres. Smoke from the fire is drifting into Gold Beach and Brookings. Crews hope to have the fire contained by the end of the month. 8/25/10: The Oak Flat fire burning near Selma jumped a containment line this afternoon. Fire crews say strong winds, high heat and low humidity pushed the fire. It's now more than 4700 acres and 70% contained, although crews say the containment date has been pushed back two more days to August 30th. 8/26/10: Air tankers have joined in fighting the Oak Flat Fire outside Selma. Consumer Affairs / Recall	Dairy Recall	News	8/19/2010	6a, 12p, 5p, 6p	18
Umpqua Dairy released a recall, calling for all dairy products to be pulled immediately from grocery stores. The company temporarily stopped production at their Roseburg plant after they discovered salmonella in their processing equipment. The recall affects all dairy products with the exception of ice cream and their organic line. Any Umpqua Dairy products purchased before Monday should be disposed of immediately. Umpqua has a toll-free line for questions and information: 1-888-672-MILK.
8/23/10: Umpqua milk is back on the shelves at some local grocery stores. While many shops in the area have bare shelves, Grocery Outlet in Medford is restocking with new, untainted products coming from Umpqua's Redmond branch. Even though they say it's safe, people are hesitating.
8/25/10: Umpqua Dairy has found the problem that led to the massive milk recall last week. The company says there was a problem with the machinery at the Roseburg plant. It has been fixed and they have put in new procedures to avoid salmonella outbreaks in the future.
Consumer Affairs / Recall	Egg Recall	News	8/19/2010	6a, 12p, 5p, 6p, 11p, 6a	17
380 million eggs have been recalled due to potential salmonella poisoning. The Federal Centers for Disease Control and Prevention said eggs from an Iowa company were linked to illnesses in multiple states. The company packages eggs under 13 different brand names. To find out if your eggs are on the recall list, look for a 4-digit number on the side of the carton that starts with the letter P. The numbers being recalled are 10-26, 14-13, 19-46, 17-20, and 19-42, regardless of the brand.
8/20/10: The nationwide egg recall is expanding. A second farm in Iowa is now recalling eggs that could be contaminated with salmonella. Millions of eggs are believed to have been distributed in 14 states since early April; they were sold under the brand names Hillandale Farms, Sunny Farms, and Sunny Meadow. The Food and Drug Administration says these are laboratory-confirmed cases of salmonella from those eggs.
8/23/10: The FDA is still trying to get to the bottom of the biggest egg recall in history. About 1300 people have gotten sick from contaminated eggs and that number is expected to grow.
8/27/10: FDA officials say they may have found the cause of the recent salmonella outbreak that resulted in a massive egg recall. The news comes as the outbreak continues to grow.

Fires / Wildfire A fire is burning on Blackwell Hill in Central Point. The fire has doubled in size to 300 acres since it began Sunday afternoon. One home has been destroyed and others are threatened. 9/13/10: The fire near Central Point is now 10% contained. The area is very rugged and there are also many abandoned open face mines in the area that can pose a threat. Nearly 200 wildland firefighters, several helicopters and an air tanker are battling the blaze. 9/14/10: The Oregon Department of Forestry says it was a pick axe that started the Blackwell Hill fire. A resident was using the pick axe to split a rock when it sparked, starting the fire in the dry grass clippings. ODF says the fire was an accident and the homeowner didn't violate any fire restriction rules; he will not be held responsible for any costs to fight the fire. ODF expects to have the fire completely contained tonight.	Blackwell Hill	News	9/12/2010	6p, 11p, 6a, 12p, 5p	19
Consumer Affairs / Information Oregon Department of Forestry is getting strong responses from their use of social media. Last summer, ODF extended their information to Twitter and a blog. Recreation / Theater	OSF	News	9/17/2010	5p, 6p, 11p	3
Groundbreaking success for an Oregon Shakespeare Festival play, now the Festival is doing something it's never done before. They are adding shows. American Night, a tale of U.S. immigration, sold out all of their shows, enough to move play officials to add four more shows.
Fires / Prevention	Fire Risk	News	9/17/2010	12p	1
The Medford Fire Departmet has determined that 2300 homes in residential neighborhoods could burn in wildfires. Fire officials urge residents to clear an area around their homes, even if they live in neighborhoods, saying some homeowners have a false sense of security.
Agriculture / Crops	Late Harvest	News	9/20/2010	5p, 6p, 11p, 6a, 12p	11
Experts say a wet spring means the Fall harvest is about 3 weeks behind schedule. Access says the supply of fresh fruit and produce is especially important because canned donations from the USDA are historically down this time of year. Fresh produce is a huge part in meeting the increasing demand for food, which is up about 8% from last year.
9/27/10: It's shaping up to be a scary season for pumpkin farmers. It's the same story all over Oregon farms, the pumpkins are about 4 weeks behind their normal schedule. The cold, wet months of May and June delayed the planting and when the pumpkins finally did grow, they just didn't grow as fast. It's not just pumpkins, the weather has affected other crops as well.
Business / Wages	Minimum Wage	News	9/20/2010	5p, 6p, 6a, 12p	4
A small boost for workers making minimum wage. The State Bureau of Labor and Industries announced an increase of 10 cents an hour, changing minimum wage to $8.50 from $8.40 per hour. The increase goes into effect January 1st.
Medical / Technology	Text Messaging	News	9/20/2010	5p, 6p, 11p, 6a, 12p	5
